

Dear Sir or Madam,

I saw your two logo options, but I think they are not as modern they could be. I like the idea of a tick mark explaining the 'quality' for the respective retailers. So I transferred it to my new logo. The shape is a capsule or a breakable tablet. The left side includes the well known 'pharmacy cross' in a brighter green tone. The other side shows the tick mark in a fitting shade of green.

