

Joint FAO/WHO/WOAH/UNEP Quadripartite GLEWS + Global Disease Intelligence and Early Warning System

- A global early warning system that formally brings together human and animal public health systems (since 2006)
- To share health threats information and data (including zoonotic disease outbreak)
- To conduct Risks Assessment
- To deliver Early warning messages on areas at risk. Combines official reporting data, data from nonofficial sources and trends analyses

