SUSTAINABLE HEALTH SYSTEMS IN THE EUROPEAN UNION

A webinar of the Expert Panel on Effective Ways of Investing in Health

Thursday 1 December 2022, 10.00 – 12.00 CET, Brussels time

Dear colleague,

We invite you to join the webinar of the Expert Panel on Effective Ways of Investing in Health on 1 December 2022, 10.00 – 12.00 CET.

The COVID-19 pandemic has exposed the limits of health systems' ability to adapt to external shocks and emphasised the need to further develop resilient health systems. This webinar marks the end of the third term of the Expert Panel and will scan future horizons on key health policy challenges.

The webinar will address the following questions, building on recent Opinions published by the Expert Panel:

- How can health systems support the mental health of health workers and other workers at a time of crisis in the EU?
- What is the impact of post-COVID-19 condition (also known as “long COVID”) on EU health systems?
- What strategies can countries implement to tackle antimicrobial resistance (AMR) within and across the EU?

Short introductory presentations by Expert Panel members and by invited speakers will be followed by an interactive discussion with the audience.

This webinar will be held in English.

Preliminary agenda:

10.00 – 10.10	Welcome Professor Jan De Maeseneer, Chair of the Expert Panel
10.10 – 10.25	Towards sustainable health systems: issues and possible solutions Members of the Expert Panel will introduce topics stemming from their work on the opinions
10.25 – 10.40	Reactions from invited speakers representing patients, industry and policy makers

10.40 – 10.50	Challenges ahead for policy makers Members of the Expert Panel will give a policy perspective on health system challenges
10.50 – 11.50	Interactive discussion with the audience
11.50 – 12.00	Final reflections, conclusions
