

Expert Panel on effective ways of investing in health

Webinar

'Beyond the COVID-19 pandemic. Sustainable health systems in the European Union'

1 December 2022, 10.00 – 12.00 CET

Invited speakers

Hans Martens lives and works all over Europe. He is a Political Scientist, who while he was leading the European Policy Centre in Brussels started works on European health policy, not least in the light of the demographic developments in Europe. He works today as a Senior Policy Advisor on health policy across Europe. He speaks at and moderates events on European health policy, and he is a member of the EIT Health's High Value Group.

MEP Maxová has been serving in the European Parliament since 2019, focusing on human rights, especially women's rights and rights of LGBTI community and of persons with disabilities. She has been a vice-chair of the Committee on Women's Rights and Gender Equality (since 2022), a member of the Special Committee on foreign interference in all democratic processes in the European Union, including disinformation and a substitute of the Committee on the Environment, Public Health and Food Safety. Since the beginning of her mandate, she has also been a co-chair of MEP Mental Health Alliance and she is a member of the Bureau of the Parliament's Disability Intergroup and a member of LGBTI Rights Intergroup.

Dr Neda Milevska Kostova is a Chair of the International Alliance of Patients Organisations (IAPO), UK, a President of IAPO Patients for Patient Safety Observatory and a chair of the AMR Patient Alliance, Switzerland. She holds PhD in public health, and has extensive experience in health policy, patient engagement and influence of global and regional agendas on national health policies. Currently, she is a postdoc researcher at Radboudumc, the Netherlands, and a consultant on national health policies for the World Health Organisation.