

Scientific Committee on Consumer Safety (SCCS)

WG on 'Nanomaterials in Cosmetic Products'

Venue: Luxembourg

Minutes 05 July 2013

1. Welcome and apologies

The Commission welcomed the participants. One apologise was announced by the Chair.

2. Adoption of the agenda

The agenda was adopted as it was presented.

3. Declaration of interest on matters on the agenda

No potential risk of conflict of interest was declared.

4. Information from chairman/members

Information was provided to members, mainly regarding public consultation (Annex of REACH), Recommendation on 'nano' definition in cosmetics to be review by the end 2014, OECD Workshops (on categorisation nanomaterial for testing in April 2014 and on genotox nanomaterial in November 2013), and ongoing relevant projects on nanomaterials.

5. S75, TiO₂ (nano form) draft opinion
SCCS/1516/13

–

The opinion presented and discussed at the last SCCS Plenary meeting (18/6) was finalised (reference/editorial work). The opinion is foreseen to be formally adopted via written procedure in July.

6. Carbon Black (nano form), draft opinion
SCCS/1515/13

–

The draft opinion was discussed and comments made.

7. ZnO revision (nano form)

The draft addendum was discussed and finalised. It is planned to be adopted by written procedure in July.

8. Comments on opinions from Plenary in 2013
S79

2,2-METHYLENE-BIS-(6(2H-BENZOTRIAZOL-2-YL)-4-(1,1,3,3-TETRAMETHYLBUTYL)PHENOL)

-

SCCS/1443/11

The replies to questions from the applicant have been finalised and the opinion revised. The documents will be adopted by written procedure in July. The applicant will be informed accordingly, following the adoption.

9. Possible criteria to identify nanomaterials of concern, progress report

The internal document adopted at the last SCCS Plenary meeting (18/6) was finalised (structural work/editing). It will be sent to SANCO B2, which requested these possible criteria early this year.

10. Any other business

Next meetings are foreseen on 05 September, 28 October and 25 November 2013.