HERA and EU FAB

The COVID-19 pandemic has highlighted the need for Europe to be better prepared for future health emergencies.

The Health Emergency preparedness and Response Authority (HERA) has been set up to improve Europe's ability to rapidly respond to such crises, and to make vaccines available to European citizens. HERA is therefore supporting Europe's world-leading industrial capacities and establishing a network of vaccine manufacturers in the EU and EEA to quickly manufacture vaccines when and where needed.

Financed by HERA's annual work plan for 2022, the Commission, in cooperation with the European Health and Digital Executive Agency (HaDEA), is launching EU FAB, with the objective to ensure that sufficient and agile manufacturing capacities for different vaccine types are kept operational and can be activated quickly in case of a public health emergency.
