

High Level Meeting

“AMR: One Health Action Plan and evidence based policy-making”

Draft programme

Thursday, 23 November

Venue: The building CCAB – Albert Borschette, Rue Froissart 36, 1040 Brussels

9.00-10.00 Opening of the meeting

9.00-9.30 Registration and welcome coffee

9.30-10.00 Opening of the meeting

Mr Tarmo Tamm, Minister of Rural Affairs of Estonia

Dr Vytenis Andriukaitis, European Commissioner for Health and Food Safety (tbc)

10.00-12.15 Discussion panel I: The New EU One Health Action Plan Challenges and Opportunities at Member State, EU and global level

*Moderator of the discussion panel I: Xavier Prats Monné

*The discussions of the panel are enhanced by short statement by the moderator about the new EU One Health Action against AMR (its aims, content and current phase of implementation)

The audience is actively involved to the discussions by the moderator.

12.15-13.15 Lunch

13.15-16.30 Discussion Panel II: Effective evidence based policy making on AMR: science, surveillance and policy-making decisions. How to put evidence into practice and achieve effective policy making on AMR at the national, EU and global level
Moderator of the discussion panel II: Dame Sally Davies

*The discussions of the panel are enhanced by short statement by the panellists on following topics:

- Economic burden and health impact of AMR: what is the cost of action and inaction?
- Scientific opinion on a list of outcome indicators on surveillance of resistances and consumption of antimicrobials: current status and use by Member States
- Models how to measure processes of inter-sectoral issues - AMR
- Scientific research on AMR in the environment: what do we know about it and how do we use it?

The audience is actively involved to the discussions by the moderator.

16.40-17.00 Summary and conclusions

