8th webinar organized on 2 June by the "COVID-19 Clinical Management Support System" on "COVID-19 and Intensive Care Medicine"

Two experts from the European Society of Intensive Care Medicine will hold the seminar, which will take place on 2 June from 17.00 to 18.00 (CET). The purpose of the webinar, co-organised with the European Society of Intensive Care Medicine (ESICM), is to provide clinicians with the most updated knowledge on intensive care management and ethics in the context of the Covid-19 pandemic.

The ESICM has been developing an important and remarkable work in collecting and generating knowledge, and supporting the clinicians at the frontline. More information available in https://www.esicm.org/resources/coronavirus-public-health-emergency/

The webinar will be held by Prof. Maurizio Cecconi, President Elect of the European Society of Intensive Care Medicine and Head of Department Anaesthesia and Intensive Care Units, Humanitas Research Hospital, Lombardy in Italy, and by Prof. Jozef Kesecioglu, President of the European Society of Intensive Care Medicine, expert on ethics and intensive care, Head of Intensive Care Centre of the University Medical Centre of Utrecht in The Netherlands. Attendees will then be able to ask questions to the speakers. The webinar will be recorded and available for off line vision afterwards.

In the context of the "COVID-19 Clinical Management Support System" launched by the European Commission, DG SANTE organises a series of webinars to support clinicians and other healthcare professionals at the frontline of the care of COVID-19 patients. These webinars will bring the expertise and recommendations of several experts from the 24 ERNs in the management of challenging cases of patients suffering at the same time of COVID-19 and a rare or complex disease or conditions.
