

Invitation to another webinar!

Misinformation & disinformation in times of the COVID-19 pandemic

Monday 27 April 2020 – 14.00 to 15.30

Due to the current circumstances, we are unfortunately not in the position to offer you the usual choice of regular conferences at the Maison de l'Union européenne. Pursuant to the first successful webinar, we would like to invite you to another online and live meeting.

The Representation of the European Commission in Luxembourg, in cooperation with the EU Health Policy Platform of the European Commission, is very pleased to invite you to participate in this second webinar conference about mis and disinformation in the context of the COVID-19 pandemic.

We propose the following agenda:

Introduction and welcome

Ms Yuriko Backes, Representative of the European Commission in Luxembourg
Mr John F. Ryan, Director, DG for Health and Food Safety of the European Commission

Misinformation and missing information about the virus & the pandemic

Mr Alexandru Niculae, Communication Officer for Media and Risk Communication, European Centre for Disease Prevention and Control (ECDC)
Prof. Dr. Claude Muller, Expert in outbreak and virus surveillance, Luxembourg Institute of Health

Disinformation – a case for increased European and international cooperation

Ms Sabrina Spieleder, Information and Communications Officer, East StratCom Task Force, European External Action service

Conclusions

Ms Yuriko Backes, Representative of the European Commission in Luxembourg

Questions can be asked throughout the course of the conference. The webinar will be held in English but questions can be asked in French and German.

You will find hereafter all the practical information you need to join and participate. No registration is required.

Please join us. We are looking forward to welcoming you online again!

Yuriko Backes
Representative of the European Commission in Luxembourg
